Scenic mountainous landscapes and villages with houses built into the mountains. Meeting Kurdish people and hearing about their tales and traditions.

What you need to know about this tour

- Iran is home to about 10 million Kurds who mostly inhabit the mountainous Zagros region stretched from the northwest to the west of Iran, sharing borders with Kurdish people of Turkey, Iraq, and Syria, making up the fourth-largest ethnic group of the Middle East. The Kurds of Iran live in the Kurdistan Province, Kermanshah Province, West Azerbaijan Province, Ilam Province, and Hamadan, and are known for their ancient history and rich culture, their Kurdish language, culinary, traditional music, and most importantly their dignity and pride.

Salaam! Welcome to Iran. Your tour will start from Tehran, the modern capital of Iran with a big number of residents. Tehran is both a modern city with sky scrappers and a city hiding the treasures of the Qajar and pahlavi Dynasties like the Golestan Palace, Saad Abad Palace and Niavaran Palace. Today you will arrive at IKA INTL Airport and you will be transferred to your hotel to get ready for the adventure. Considering the time, you can visit some attractions in Tehran, like the Golestan Palace or the National Museum of Iran.

Optional Excursions

- Golestan Palace
- National Museum of Iran

Accommodation: Hotel in Tehran

This morning your adventure will start with a road trip to Hamedan (320 Kilometers). On the way you will visit the Alisadr Cave, the world's largest cave located 100 kilometers north of Hamadan, and then Lalejin a town with booming traditional pottery industry. Here you will visit a pottery workshop and try doing some pottery on pottery wheel. Then you'll arrive Hamedan and then check in to your hotel.
