What you need to know about this tour

- Nomads are the only people in the world who still live the way our ancestors lived on earth and herding and creating handicrafts are still their only sources of income. They still pack their life and migrate from one land to another on a seasonal basis with their family and herd, to find new pastures and water resources. The vast country of Iran is among the few countries which is lucky to still be home to a big population of nomads from different tribes like the Qahqai tribe, bakhtiari Tribe, and Shabsavan Tribe in 21 century. Iran Nomad Tour is a life time adventure which gives you the opportunity to meet the Bakhtiari and Qashqai nomads of Iran in the most scenic villages and plains of Zagros Mountain Range, staying at their tents to experience their authentic lifestyle and learn about their rich culture and customs, besides enjoying the city tours and exploring the top cultural and historical highlights of Iran.

Glorious Isfahan is known as "The Pearl of Persia" and according to an old description, Isfahan is called "Half of the world!" This city has been the capital of Iran during the Safavid time (16th and 17th centuries), when the best examples of Islamic art and architecture were built in Iran. First visit the great Naqsh-e Jahan Square and the monuments around, including the magnificent six story Ali Qapu Palace with eye-catching ornaments and wall paintings and the Sheikh Lotfollah Mosque and Jame Imam Mosque displaying the best Islamic architecture in Iran. The whole Naqsh-e Jahan complex is protected as a world heritage site by UNESCO. Then browse the handicrafts bazaar of Isfahan and see the Chehel Sotun Garden and Palace (a Persian garden listed as the UNESCO heritage list), displaying fascinating wall paintings telling stories about battles and ceremonies in the Safavid era.

- Ali Qapu Palace
- Sheikh Lotfollah Mosque
- Jame Imam Mosque
- Chehel Sotun Garden and Palace

Leave early in the morning and drive to Sar Agha Seyyed Village (230 kms), one of the most scenic villages in Iran. The houses are built into the mountain and the yards of the houses above form the roofs of the houses below. The locals of Sar Agha Seyyed village are originally Bakhtiari nomads who used to live in this mountainous area and used this village as their summer residence. Today they have settled down in this village and are busy with agriculture and animal husbandry. Enjoy the fresh weather while trekking, meet the locals and spend the night at a cozy ecolodge with simple facilities.
