

Tehran City Tour

Available from: January 1, 2019 To December 31, 2019

Tour Destinations: RoutesTehran

Duration: 1Days

Tour styles: Style

- Day Tour
- Cultural
- Historical

Code: PITD-C

Tour route:

- Tehran

Tailor made

What you need to know about this tour

- Tehran is the capital of Iran with a big population of 14 million people. This city was first chosen as the capital by Aqa Muhammad Khan, the Qajarid King, and little by little it grew to the immense metropolis that it is today. With royal palaces and mansions from the Qajar and Pahlavi dynasties and modern constructions and art galleries, Tehran has a lot to offer. Join Pack to Iran on its Tehran Day tour to enjoy exploring this city's attractions.

What is Included

- Professional English speaking guide
- Entrance fees
- Public transportation
- One snack

What is Not Included:

- Meals, tipping

Day 1: Tehran City Tour

You will be picked up at your hotel or any other convenient location in the city at 9:00 am. The Tehran city tour will start from Golestan Palace, the only UNESCO heritage site in Tehran. This Qajarid masterpiece, which was the seat of the Qajar kings, showcases the excellent Persian architecture influenced by western and Russian Architecture style. Continue the city tour by visiting the Iran National Museum and then you enjoy having an Iranian meal and taking a rest. You will visit the Treasury of National Jewelries and the Bagh Melli Gate in the afternoon and finish your Tehran city tour by visiting the Abgineh Museum, which is home to mahnificent glassware and cermaic pieces.