Day 1: Meybod, Kharanagh and Chak Chak Tour

The guide driver will pick you up at 9:00 AM at your hotel lobby and you will drive for 85 kilometers to reach the ancient Kharanagh Village, with mudbrick houses. Here you will visit the 4500-year-old Kharanagh Castle, at which locals used to shelter during battles. Then walk through the old alleys and visit the Kharanagh Caravanserai and enjoy the scenic view of the village from the roof top. After visiting the old bridge (aqueduct) used for dividing water. Continue your road trip towards Meybod, the city of pottery with 7000 years of history behind. In Meybod, you'll visit the impressive Narin Castle and the caravanserai and then you will experience pottery at a traditional pottery workshop. After having a snack, you will visit and hear the story of the Chak Chak Temple which is one of the most important shrines of the Zoroastrians in the world, and then you will be driven back to your hotel in Yazd in the evening.
